

David Kerr, Texas A&M University

Dynamical alternating groups, property Gamma, and inner amenability

I will show that the alternating group of a topologically free action of a countably infinite amenable group on the Cantor set has property Gamma (and in particular is inner amenable) and that there are large classes of such groups which are simple, finitely generated, and nonamenable. This is joint work with Robin Tucker-Drob.