

On unique continuation properties of solutions to the Korteweg-de Vries equation and its higher order generalizations

Gustavo Ponce

Gustavo Ponce (ponce@math.ucsb.edu)
University of California, Santa Barbara

Abstract. We shall discuss results concerning unique continuation properties of solutions to generalized Korteweg-de Vries equation and their relation with decay and persistent properties of the corresponding solutions flow. Also we shall consider the extension of these type of results to higher order dispersive models including the next equation in the KdV hierarchy.