Dirac generating operators

Manasa Manjunatha University of Hamburg

Abstract:

Dirac generating operators are defined over spinor bundles associated to Courant algebroids and encode their anchor map and bracket. Alekseev and Xu proved that there exists a local Dirac generating operator over every spinor bundle associated to a regular Courant algebroid with scalar product of neutral signature. We extend this result to include scalar products of arbitrary signature.