Speaker: David Kerr

Title: Approximate invariance, property Γ, and topological dynamics

Abstract: I will discuss how the idea of approximate invariance and its manifestations in the ergodic and L^2 contexts can be developed in the framework of topological dynamics, with applications to the relation between dimensional invariants, tileability, and comparison.