

SYMMETRY IN POSITIVE CURVATURE AND BEYOND

Karsten Grove (University of Notre Dame)

11:30 h., viernes, 9 de mayo de 2014, Aula 520 (Depto. Matemáticas UAM)

ABSTRACT

Much of the progress about manifolds with positive (and non-negative) curvature during the past two decades has evolved in the presence of symmetry. This has led to several classification results, new tools and the construction of new examples. We will give an overview of these developments including a link via polar actions and reflection groups to Tits buildings and its impact.